CPRAs Made the following Training Recommendations with Respect to Investigations in this Report
Training Recommendation(s)	The CPRA recommends that officers receive additional training on the definition of the term “hand to hand” as it relates to drug-related transactions; this training should include examples of the types of activities that would qualify as a “hand to hand” transaction in order to avoid confusion.
	The CPRA recommends that officers be trained to explicitly communicate with each other prior to detaining individuals and come up with a detention plan, taking into consideration practicability and officer safety concerns.
	The CPRA recommends that officers receive additional training regarding communications with detainees when practical and safe; officers should explain the purpose of the stop and clearly communicate orders to a detainee during the detention process.
CPRAs Made the following Policy Recommendations with Respect to Investigations in this Report
Policy Recommendation(s)	The CPRA recommends that the Department should re-examine or reinforce policies and tactics to de-escalate incidents and minimize aggressive approaches that create community tension when detaining subjects, taking into consideration practicability and officer safety concerns.
	The CPRA recommends that the Department make an in-depth review of the department search policy and training and make clarifications with respect to “Probable Cause Searches” of individuals when there is no probable cause to arrest, and that officers receive regular updates and trainings related to search and seizure legal and tactical developments.
