			Bay Area Mural Program's (BAMP) Oakland Black Artists Archive is a collaboration with the African American Museum and Library of Oakland (AAMLO) and Black Liberation Walking Tour to ensure the legacy of Black artists in this city is preserved, honored, and passed on to younger generations. BAMP and AAMLO will create a digital archive, partner with the Black Liberation Walking Tour to engage the community in story collecting sessions, and paint a new mural featuring Oakland artists across generations. Grant funds will be used to support staff, facility expenses, outreach/marketing and Rock Paper Scissors Collective will be creating a "Neighborhood Voices Club" for local community members to participate in programs free of charge. Programming consists of: Gallery exhibitions, accessible Arts Lab & Workshops, a local handmade retail shop, volunteer orientations, events, zine publications and a library, and community collaborations (programming working with external organizations, groups & institutions). City funding will

			The Vietnamese American Community Center of the East Bay (VACCEB) is collaborating with local CBO's and artists to paint a new mural on the front of the center, highlighting the resilience and strength of Oakland, and our diverse communities. On February 6, 2021, a significant part of VACCEB was heavily impacted by a fire that originated from a nearby homeless encampment. This mural will also show VACCEB's resilience in the face of tragedy, and our
